MasterType's™

Writer

by Learningways, Inc.

The first word processor to help you write better, make the most of your natural creativity and express your ideas effectively and easily.

Apple IIe (128K) and Apple IIc

"MasterType's™ Writer is the most flexible word processor we've seen to date. Head and shoulders above Bank Street Writer..."

— Learning Lab

And it's true! MasterType's Writer is the only program that goes beyond word processing to help you write better — to be more productive at home, succeed at school and get ahead at work.

How? MasterType's Writer gives you a new set of tools to organize and structure your ideas. These features help you write — and write well.

And MasterType's Writer gives you all of this without sacrificing ease!

Because this program is intended to enhance your creativity, we've made it easy to learn and even easier to use. Even if you don't know a thing about computers, with MasterType's Writer you'll be able to begin writing more clearly, more concisely and more creatively.

MasterType's Writer makes it that easy!

MasterType's Writer's features include:

- ▶ on-disk tutorial,
- ▶ dual windows for outlining,
- ▶ color marking for editing and organizing,
- ▶ multiple typefaces,
- ▶ easy access to help screens,
- ▶ free back-up disk and
- ▶ much more!
